GI2012-OpenDataPolicies – Motivation & Conception

CCSS (Praha) and IGN (Dresden) are non-profit Associations focused on Cross-border collaboration on awareness, education, training and european research. For the first time CCSS is planning the conference FOSS4G-CentralEastEurope (CEE), while this year IGN is celebrating the GI2012-OpenDataPolicies-Forum, e.g. it will be already the 12th Annual geospatial event - the „12. Sächsisches GIS-Forum“.

The GI2000-Strategy-Seminars started at former Bildungswerk Ost-West (BOW, now FAA) in Dresden / Saxony. Nowadays, 12 years later, after the approval by European Commission of Directives PSI (2003/98/EC) and INSPIRE (2007/2/EC) we have decided to support open governments and open data policies by transposing of PublicSectorInformation (PSI) and OpenSourceGeo awareness and expertise in close cooperation with our partner CCSS organizing the conference FOSS4G-CEE in Prague.

The GI2012-X-border-ODP-FORUM in Dresden with international participation of European keynoters and speakers from the PSI, OGC, OSGeo and OSM communities is targeting on open data policies and strategies set by European Commission's Directives on Public Sector Information (PSI), as well as on Infrastructures of Spatial Information for Europe (INSPIRE), following the "Europe 2020 Strategy" and "Digital Europe 2020" Action Plan, especially under the aspect of the OpenDataStrategy Decision taken by EC at December 12th, 2011 and its decision on Revision of the Directive on re-using PSI planned at June 2012.

GI2012 – THE CROSS-BORDER OPEN DATA POLICIES – FORUM

Therefore, you are kindly invited to participate at this GI2012-X-border-ODP-Forum to be held in Dresden at May 18/19, 2012, either as an active Keynote speaker, Presenter of a paper and/or a Poster, or as a passive Participant interested in progress of EU-Directives PSI and INSPIRE for harmonization of Data, Services, Apps & Portals, especially in Cross-border EUROPE OF REGIONS. The Prague FOSS4G-CEE conference focus (Free and Open Source Software for Geo in Central and East Europe) has a broad, comprehensive orientation, while the GI2012-ODP-Forum will be concentrated on actual problems of open access to and free re-use of public DATA in its local, regional, cross-border and trans-national GeoINSPIRE'd context (Open Public Sector Information, Open Government Data, Open Services, OpenStreetMap, Open Standards, OGC, OSGeo etc.) !!

New decisions made in FI, FR, NL, UK to [open geotopographic reference data] are a primer for Europe2020 !

This OPEN Call for Presentations & Posters invites existing and developing local, regional, national and trans-national OPEN GOV & OPEN DATA solutions freely available in GEO+ENVIRO+SPATIO information sectors and presenting the transformation, harmonization and integration of data and services into more complex SDI/GDI. The „know-how“ of FOSS4Geo, OSGeo and OSM project developers should be shared and discussed. The Experts in the field of Geomatics and Applied Geoinformatics, Managers of OPEN Geoportals and Infrastructures for Spatial Information are invited and welcomed for presentations! The re-use of OPEN Public Sector Information (PSI) and development of OPEN Infrastructures for Spatial Information in Europe (INSPIRE) are strategic opportunities for more than 200 EUROPEAN BORDER REGIONS. The importance of the re-use of “borderless” Bmaps, Gmaps, OpenStreetMap (OSM) for applications should be highlighted too!

The Goal of GI2012-ODP-Forum is to share information, knowledge, and expertise, to learn from PSI, OSGeo, OSM and SDI „best practices“, as well as to exchange and discuss European awareness, education and research projects, introducing innovative OPEN geomatics technologies, demonstrating cost-benefit of open software and data approaches as well discussing frameworks for an open European Location Framework (ELF) policies, structures and technologies behind OPEN PSI & INSPIRE processes. Therefore, the GI2012-X-border-OpenDataPolicies-Forum will be preparing the methodological base for the event of FOSS4G-CEE conference in Prague, to be held immediately after the Dresden OpenDataPolicies workshops.
