Doz. Dr. Frank HOFFMANN, CSc – Academician of International Eurasian Academy of Sciences (IEAS)

INTRODUCTION OF THE CONCEPT & MOTIVATION FOR GI2014

The European Commission has positioned itself as an innovative player in the field of multi-purpose use of GEO DATA (INSPIRE) and Re-use of PUBLIC SECTOR INFORMATION (PSI). With the EU DIRECTIVES PSI (2003/98/EC), INSPIRE (2007/02/EC) and the EC Communication „Strategy of Open Data in Europe“ COM (2011)882 legal requirements were provided enabling new developments and opportunities for funding of projects until 2013 and beyond 2014 – 2020 in EUROPE OF REGIONS pushing the growth of EU economy up to nearly 40 Billions Euro per year:

[<http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=COM:2011:0882:FIN:EN:PDF>]

The European Commission has reviewed & amended in June 2013 the Directive PSI (2013/37/EC).

The EC goal is to develop an open, dynamic Media industry that reuse and refine public data into valuable information and knowledge not only for ICT Experts and Public Administrations, but also allowing transparency and participation for Citizens and other User communities:

[<https://ec.europa.eu/digital-agenda/en/european-legislation-reuse-public-sector-information#revision-of-the-directive>]

However, there is a need for more and better knowledge about new EU policies and strategies like

"DIGITAL EUROPE & HORIZON 2020"

[<http://europa.eu/rapid/pressReleasesAction.do?reference=IP/11/1524&format=HTML&aged=0&language=EN&guiLanguage=en>]

Therefore, sustainable governance and decision making require more awareness of intellectual property rights (IPR) and knowledge exchange about copyrights, open licensing rules and creative commons bylaws for economic, ecological and social applications in EUROPE OF REGIONS, as well as for tourism, environment, civil protection and security-related infrastructures. Finally, there is still yet a need for comprehensive information, education and training actions, particularly at local, regional, cross-border and inter-regional levels. Therefore, these awareness needs require actual open public data, information and knowledge as well creative, innovative actions for education and training.

However, the most problematic field is the CROSS-BORDER ADAPTATION and SEMANTIC INTEROPERATION of IPR, Copyrights and Licensing of OPEN Data, Services and Applications for an effective governance, transparency and participation creating OPEN GEO APPS for citizens, infrastructure and environment !

Therefore, the GI2014 Forum is intended for inter-regional exchange of experience, information and knowledge integration of Open PSI & GEO Data at local, regional and, especially, cross-border levels.
